

99 WRITING

My Persuasive Letter

Dear Liz,

I shouldn't have to write a persuasive essay to anyone! First of all, we are already doing this in ELA class, so I find it unnecessary that I have to repeat it, as it is a waste of my time.

Also, rather than writing a letter, I could be doing my homework and even beginning to write the above-mentioned essay.

Furthermore, it seems unnecessary to write a letter because the recipient of the letter will never receive it or be persuaded, just like you, who will simply say that I still have to write a letter.

Thus, nothing useful comes out of this activity.

Clearly, it is evident that writing a letter is a waste of time, and, therefore, shouldn't be demanded.

Sincerely,

Renée R.
